

SOUTH CAROLINA—GENERAL CONVENTION.

JANUARY 21, 1833.

Read, and laid upon the table.

RESOLUTION

OF THE

Legislature of South Carolina, asking for a call of a General Convention of the States.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

Charleston, South Carolina, January 5, 1833.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to transmit the annexed resolutions, passed by both branches of the Legislature of South Carolina, with a request that the same may be laid before Congress.

With high consideration,

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

ROB. Y. HAYNE.

To the REPRESENTATIVES FROM SOUTH CAROLINA,
in the House of Representatives United States.

IN THE SENATE, December 13, 1832.

The Committee on Federal Relations, to whom was referred that portion of the Governor's message, No. 3, which relates to the call of a Convention of the States, respectfully report the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, serious causes of discontent do exist among the States of this Union, from the exercise, by Congress, of powers not conferred or contemplated by the sovereign parties to the compact: therefore,

Resolved, That it is expedient that a Convention of the States be called, as early as practicable, to consider and determine such questions of disputed power as have arisen between the States of this confederacy and the General Government.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit copies of this preamble and resolutions to the Governors of the several States, with a request that the same be laid before the Legislatures of their respective States; and, also, to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, to be, by them, laid before Congress for consideration.

Resolved, That the Senate do agree.

Ordered to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

IN SENATE, December 19, 1832.

The House of Representatives returned, with their concurrence, the report of the Committee on Federal Relations, on that portion of Governor's message, No. 3, which relates to a call of a Convention of the States.

A true copy from the Journals.

JACOB WARLEY,

Clerk of the Senate.
